

The Importance of Being Subjective (TIBS)

Bearing in mind the uniqueness of each face and how varied an individual's lifestyle or preferences can be, The Importance of being subjective (TIBS) aids you in exploring different looks and shows you how to make cosmetics a powerful tool in creating your personal brand of beauty.

Nevermind if you are a beauty newbie, a makeup hogger or someone who has developed your own religion in cosmetics, TIBS offers brand new insights to what you can do with makeup.

If you need that jumpstart or a wake up call to be inspired by what makeup has to offer, maybe it's time to be subjective.

Embark on a journey of self-discovery in make-up artistry by engaging in a series of discussions and creative thinking sessions. TIBS imparts key knowledge and the necessary skills to recreate and even conceive a wide array of your desired looks.
